NOTABLE NAME IN THE BRITISH CASUALTY LIST
London, Dec. 18, 8.35 p.m.—The name of Captain the Hon. Henry Lyndhurst Bruce of the Royal Scots guards appears in tonight's list of officers killed in action.

Captain Bruce, who was the eldest son of Lord Aberdeen, married in 1906 Camille Clifford, an American actress, whom he met while she was playing in an American musical production in London.

Early in November Captain the Hon. H. B. Bruce of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders was reported killed and, as there was no officer of this name in the British army list, it was surmised that Captain Henry Lyndhurst Bruce was meant. The report from London shows this surmise to have been erroneous.

READY FOR HUNT.

Eureka, Dec. 18.—All arrangements have been completed for the big rabbit hunt at Adams Switch, on the Salt Lake Route, Sunday, and it is estimated that between 200 and 300 sportsmen will make the trip. Special accommodations have also been arranged for the ladies, and a large number will accompany the hunters. A special train, consisting of three coaches, a baggage car and a freight car in which to haul the game, will leave Eureka at 7:30 Sunday morning, and in returning will leave the hunting grounds at 3:30, arriving here about 7 o'clock in the evening. The committee having the hunt in charge consists of Gus J. Hendrick, Dr. L. B. Laker, Andrew P. Mayberry, Charles Baker and Lewis Merriam, and they have completed every detail which will add to the pleasure of the trip.

George Tinsman and Maurice Kelly made a trip to the hunting grounds during the week and they say that rabbits are very plentiful and the light snow which has fallen has put the grounds in splendid condition. In the roundup a year ago the hunters brought back several thousand rabbits and they are expecting to do even better this year. The rabbits will be brought to Eureka and a special committee will take charge of the distribution and all needy families will be provided for.

ALLEGED SWINDLER

El Paso, Dec. 18.—Arastun Christensen, believed to be the man who is alleged to have swindled large numbers of Mormons in Colorado and Utah out of sums of money ranging from a few hundred to several thousand dollars, has been arrested here on information from Manassa, Colo., and is being held until the arrival of the Colorado officers.

The specific charge made against him in Manassa is the forging of a promissory note purported to be that of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morgan of Romeo, Colo., both of whom are said by the police to be Mormons.

Erastun Christensen, mentioned in the foregoing dispatch, and Ras Christensen, referred to in a story from Alamosa, Colo., appearing in The Tribune of December 11, are believed to be the same person. The story from Alamosa said that Christensen was cashier and one of the
